Review of the Fairtrade Standard for Tea Small Producer Organizations, Tea Hired Labour and traders – First round of consultation

Dear Fairtrade Partners,

Fairtrade International's Standards & Pricing kindly invites you to participate in the first round of consultation on the Fairtrade Standard for Tea for Small Producer Organizations, Tea Hired Labour and Traders.

The consultation document consists of two parts: standards review and pricing review:

- The standards review has two sections. Section A gives the space for providing your feedback and/or proposing topics applicable to Tea Small-scale Producer Organizations. Section B, presents proposed amendments to the Tea Hired Labour and Traders Standard. Please note that some proposed amendments will also be applicable for traders sourcing from Small-scale Producer Organizations.
- The pricing review consults on the pricing model with the aim to explore and collect feedback to formulate technical proposals in the second consultation round.

The consultation is open until 10th July 2019.

Please access the online consultation here, <https://www.surveymonkey.de/r/BXG9BKV> and get involved!

If you are not able to access the on-line survey, you will find a downloadable version on our website here. The survey and its word version is available in English.

We invite you to analyze the proposals, comment on them and send us your feedback at o.forkutsa@fairtrade.net or e.freixa-serra@fairtrade.net.

Producer Networks are also organizing workshops to gather input directly from farmers and workers, we encourage you to liaise with your respective network to participate.

Following the consultation period, Standards & Pricing will prepare a synopsis paper compiling the comments submitted. All information we receive from respondents will be kept confidential.

In case of any questions, please feel free to contact us.

Thank you in advance for your feedback, we greatly appreciate your contributions.

Best regards,
Standards & Pricing
